

SUNDAY	GULBENKIAN GALLERY [capacity: 250]	LECTURE THEATRE 1 [120]	SEMINAR SPACE [120]	LECTURE THEATRE 2 [40]	CAFÉ [80]
ALL DAY	EXHIBITION - PPARC'S SPACE AGE WITH THE FAULKES TELESCOPE
		BREAKFAST BANTER	BREAKFAST BANTER		BREAKFAST BANTER
10.00-10.45		Can films change the world?	What's up with student politics?		What do we want from science?
	KEYNOTE CONTROVERSY	BATTLE OVER NATURE	BATTLE FOR THE MEDIA	SALON DEBATE	CAFÉ CONVERSATION
11.00-12.30	The Battle for the Future	Carbon, carbon everywhere?	The rise of 'citizen journalism'	Sending parents back to school	Should footballers be role models?
	12.45-13.45: LUNCHTIME DEBATE	12.45-13.45: LUNCHTIME DEBATE	12.45-13.45: LUNCHTIME DEBATE	12.45-13.45: LUNCHTIME FILM	LUNCH
	Pupils taking over the classroom	Save the planet, don't see the world?	Is the rise of religion and faith-based politics a problem?	'The Cult of the Suicide Bomber II' and Q&A
	KEYNOTE CONTROVERSY	BATTLE OVER NATURE	BATTLE FOR THE MEDIA	SALON DEBATE	CAFÉ CONVERSATION
14.00-15.30	clash of civilisations or cultural crisis?	What does sustainability mean for the developing world?	Do the media dumb down ideas in the arts, science and politics?	Surveillance society: protection from ourselves?	Does every child really matter: has the abuse panic gone too far?
15.30-16.00		FAULKES TELESCOPE SHOW
	KEYNOTE CONTROVERSY	BATTLE OVER NATURE	BATTLE FOR THE MEDIA	SALON DEBATE	CAFÉ CONVERSATION
16.00-17.30	Reassessing liberty: is John Stuart Mill still relevant today?	Nature's revenge?	Is TV good for children?	Demoralising the debate: poverty or social exclusion?	Reclaiming the Olympic spirit in an era of non-competitive sport
	CONTEMPORARY QUESTION	PROVOCATION LECTURE	WHAT NEXT FOR...?		FOOD FOR THOUGHT
17.45-18.30	Are we paralysed by risk aversion?	'nuff respect? Questioning the 'respect' agenda	To be announced		Nature knows best? The organic food debate
18.30-21.00	END OF FESTIVAL DRINKS				